Ms Shalu Srivastava (Visual Arts)	1. 04/08/2021	1. Item Writing-Multiple Choice Questions	1. Ms. Vibha Khosla	one hour		1. How to be creative while making multiple choice questions. 2. The session was an eye opener as it brought out the fact that one in every five student is actively dealing with a mental health issue. Small changes in behaviour can be an indication of a much bigger problem. It is advised to keep a constant check on their behaviour. The various things that can stop or control this is by making bullying prevention team, regular counselling sessions, etc can prevent it to prevail among students. 3. The session was interesting and engaging. It talked about what is storytelling, importance of storytelling, how one can make storytelling more practical and doable. 4. 5. 7. Storytelling is the original form of teaching and has the potential of fostering emotional intelligence and help the child gain insight into human behaviour. 2) Invest some time to get to know your students. Make an effort to know each and every one of your students. Use humor/Use any opportunity to use humor inside the classroom. * The workshop was quite engaging and interesting and focused on improvising decision making skills in adolescents. It talked about various factors which affect and mould such skills in individuals and how we can create an environment which will support the same.
